

NOTICE BOARDTHE LITURGICAL YEAR 2021-2022*THE SEASON OF ADVENT

Sunday readings from Cycle C (Luke)
Divine Office Vol 1 - Liturgia Horarum Vol 1

Advent has a twofold character: especially during the first part it is a season of joyful expectation of the Lord's second coming at the end of time; but also, and especially during the last eight days of the season, a period of preparing to celebrate Christmas when the first coming of the Son of God is recalled. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation

During Advent

1. Masses for Various Needs and Votive Masses may be celebrated only when called for by genuine pastoral need. Daily Masses for the Dead are not allowed.
2. Masses of the memorials of saints may be celebrated only on those days assigned to them in the Martyrology
3. The playing of the organ and other musical instruments and the decoration of the altar with flowers should be done in moderation, as is consonant with the character of the season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord
4. The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of Matrimony, and the couple are to be advised of the special character of the liturgical season.

ORDINARY TIME OF THE YEAR

Weekday readings from Year 2 - Liturgia Horarum Vol 3
Week 1 of the Psalter

No particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated during Ordinary Time; but rather the mystery of Christ in its fullness is recalled, and especially on Sundays

During Ordinary Time

1. On weekdays the priest may choose Mass from one of the 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time or from the Prayers for Any Necessity. Or the Mass may be that of any saint inscribed in the Martyrology on that day. Or one of the Masses for Any Necessity or Votive Masses may be chosen. Or any of the Masses for the Dead, mindful that the Daily Mass for the Dead may be celebrated only if it is indeed being applied for the departed.

2. In Masses celebrated with the people the priest should be concerned for their spiritual good, and neither frequently nor without good cause omit the readings assigned to the day in the Weekday Lectionary, so that the faithful may be better nourished from the table of God's Word

3. For the same reason Masses for the Dead should not be celebrated too often since every Mass is offered for the living and the dead, and mention is made of the departed in every Eucharistic Prayer.

4. The colour of vestments at Votive Masses may be proper, or of the day, or of the season.
