

Prayer for Survivors of Abuse

2022 Resources

Introduction

The Pontifical Commission for the Protection of Minors (PCPM) has highlighted the importance of prayer and suggested to Pope Francis that the worldwide Catholic Church should join together in a day of prayer. The Holy Father has welcomed this initiative.

From 2021 the Bishops have chosen Tuesday of the 5th Week of Easter as the Day of Prayer for Victims and Survivors of Abuse — 17 May 2022. There were two connected reasons for moving the Day of Prayer from Lent to Easter: this is not a penitential day for the failure of the Church and others to respond to the scourge of abuse but a day of prayer for those who have been abused in a season of hope and new life.

The Isaiah Journey has prepared a range of resources for prayer, action and reflection for use throughout the year which are launched on the day of prayer.

The Isaiah Journey is a working group of the Bishops' Conference and has grown out of the need for a pastoral-spiritual response to the suffering of victims and survivors of abuse in the Church. Inspired by the writing of the prophet Isaiah, it has three strands: seeking truth; bringing hope; finding healing.

What is important is for the local Church to acknowledge and respond in prayer when it is able rather than restrict its activities to just one day in the year. Much of the material in this resource has been written by and with survivors. Though it is hoped that survivors will be included in any local initiative that may not always be possible.

This year's Resource has a number of focuses:

- Resources for the Day: Intercessions, Homily Notes, Other Activities
- The Light of Christ — holy hour
- The Paschal Candle — a reflection of hope
- The Isaiah Journey
- The Peace of Christ
- Psalm 121

In addition to these there are general notes on Safeguarding and on Support – Listeners.

This year's resources can be found on the Bishops' Conference website:

Additional resources which were prepared for previous Days of Prayer are listed in Appendix 2:

Notice for Bulletins

On Tuesday 17 May the Church in England and Wales marks a Day of Prayer for Victims and Survivors of Abuse. We are invited not only to pray for them, but listen to their voice and learn about what how the Church responding to them.

Intercessions

The following two intercessions are offered to parishes. One or both may be included in the Intercessions at Mass celebrated on the Day of Prayer (17 May) and the surrounding days.

- For all survivors of sexual abuse;
may they come to know, once again, the compassionate love of God and find healing and hope in the risen Lord.
- For all who work in safeguarding;
may they place the voice of the survivor at the heart of their service and through their care for others help to build up the Body of Christ.

Homily Notes for 17 May

Reading 1	Acts 14:19–28	They gave an account to the church of all that God had done with them.
Psalm	Ps 144:10–13. 21 r.12	Your friends, O Lord, shall make known the glorious splendour of your reign. or Alleluia!
Gospel Acclamation	Lk 24:46.26	It was ordained that the Christ should suffer and rise from the dead, and so enter into his glory.
Gospel	John 14:27–31	My own peace I give you.

- What is the Good News that survivors hope to hear?
- As we embark on the synodal journey what will ‘put fresh heart’ into the Church which has been scarred by the abuse of its members.
- Survivors are seeking peace, peace which is a gift of Jesus, peace which takes many forms, peace which is founded upon justice.

Other Activities

Prayer and action go together. The day of prayer is not simply a time to pray an intercession but also an invitation to learn, engage and do.

- Find out about the Catholic Safeguarding Standards Agency []
- Check that safeguarding information is clearly displayed in the church.
- Discover local charities which support victims and survivors.
 - Find out about what they do
 - Support their activities or see what opportunities for volunteering
 - Hold a fundraising event for their work.

Appendix 1 Additional Texts

A Prayer for Healing & Reconciliation

Praise to you Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
the source of all consolation and hope.

Be the refuge and guardian of all who suffer from abuse and violence.

Comfort them and send healing
for their wounds of the body, soul and spirit.
Help us all and make us one with you in your love for justice
as we deepen our respect for the dignity of every human life.

Giver of peace, make us one in celebrating your praise, both now and forever.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

“Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.”

cf. Matthew 4: 123

Using the prayer

- The prayer was prepared by Northampton Diocese.
- The prayer could be used at Mass and at other times when the community gathers, such as meetings, on the day of prayer and in the days leading up to it.
- It could begin either on the preceding Sunday or there could be a novena of prayer beginning on Sunday 8 May.

Reflections

An introduction, a meditation from a survivor, some reflections on selected Psalms from the Liturgy of the Hours for Friday of the Fifth Week of Lent and a Penitential Litany spoken by Pope Francis at the World Meeting of Families in Dublin, 2018.

Prayer

Prayer to the Holy Spirit by the Archdiocese of Boston, a prayer from the Archdiocese of Armagh and prayers from wellsprings.org.uk

Intercessions

Three different sets of Intercessions are offered - one set was composed by the Daughters of Mercy, a community of religious sisters in France, who were praying during the Vatican Summit in February 2019.

Mass

The following material could be used at Weekday Mass on Friday 12 April (Friday, 5th Week of Lent). In addition to this Priests may consider using one of the two Eucharistic Prayers of Reconciliation.

Devotions

Two versions of familiar devotions are offered: Praying the Rosary — the Sorrowful Mysteries and Stations of the Cross.

Passion

A reflection on the Passion according to St John. We come before our God, who alone can lead us together in a path towards healing for all our brothers and sisters who have suffered so grievously as a result of our failures as Church.
