

Chief Finance Officer and Company Secretary
St Francis Catholic Multi Academy Trust
Diocese of Hallam, covering South Yorkshire, N.Derbyshire and N.Nottinghamshire

Salary: Competitive to attract the best

The Trust board at St Francis Catholic Multi Academy Trust (St Francis CMAT) is looking to appoint a dedicated and forward-thinking Chief Finance Officer to provide strong financial leadership within this new Multi-Academy Trust.

The primary focus of this key leadership role will be to develop and implement strategy, ensuring St Francis CMAT's strategic objectives are delivered sustainably in the public interest, and to ensure the smooth operation of the Trust's day-to-day financial activities.

The new CFO will be responsible for the overall financial management and statutory reporting requirements of ST Francis CMAT. They will lead the promotion and delivery of good financial management across the Trust, ensuring that public money is used appropriately, managing risk effectively and securing best value for the Trust and its academies.

The successful candidate will be experienced and dynamic, possessing strong business acumen and expertise, an appropriate financial qualification, and experience of working with and leading high-performing teams.

They will work closely with the CEO and Board of Directors of St Francis CMAT, playing an active role in leadership across the Diocese and helping to develop and implement strategy that will support the delivery of St Francis CMAT's strategic objectives.
