

Sunday 13 November - 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 97(98):5-9

Our psalm proclaims the kingship of the creator God with musical triumph. His Creation demonstrates his absolute power which means we are able to look to the future here and hereafter with great confidence.

The Lord comes to rule the peoples with fairness.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp
with the sound of music.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord.

Think of the music that stirs your heart to think about God. Listen to it, pray it.

As we come to the end of Church's year let us give thanks for all who serve us with their music

Let the sea and all within it, thunder;
the world, and all its peoples.
Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy
at the presence of the Lord.

The sea, land, rivers, hills are all evidence of God's creative imagination. Stand back in wonder.

God's creation helps us understand the uniqueness of our relationship with him. Thank him.

For the Lord comes,
he comes to rule the earth.
He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness.

Pray for all who have power in the world to use it with justice and fairness for the good of people.

Pray "thy kingdom come" for the rule of God to be a reality in the hearts of women and men.
