

August 6 The Transfiguration of our Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 96(97):1-2,5-6,9

THE LORD IS KING, MOST HIGH ABOVE ALL THE EARTH.

The Lord is king, let earth rejoice,
let all the coastlands be glad.
Cloud and darkness are his raiment;
his throne, justice and right.

Recall how the recent coronation was majestic.

It is nothing in comparison to our God who is king of the universe.

Do we live as subjects of the God of all as people who promote justice and right?

The mountains melt like wax before the Lord of all the earth.
The skies proclaim his justice;
all peoples see his glory.

When nature amazes us we need to remember that the Lord is its master and Lord of all we can know or imagine in the world and beyond

Look at the sky and its infinity and pray for more people to come to know our creator God in Jesus

For you indeed are the Lord most high above all the earth, exalted far above all spirits.

Like the apostles let us stand in awe of God's infinite majesty

Thank God that we can know him intimately who is yet the God greater than the whole universe
