

Sunday 21 April 2024 Fourth Sunday of Easter – We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song [Augustine]

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 117(118):1,8-9,21-23,26,28-29

THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED HAS BECOME THE CORNER STONE or ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

It is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in men;

it is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in princes.

Reflect on God's goodness to you recalling those moments of your life which have been graces for you Pray for those who put God second in their lives or ignore his presence. May the Risen Lord touch them

I will thank you for you have answered and you are my saviour.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.

Thank God for listening to us and answering our prayers as the One in whom we trust completely.
Stop and reflect on the mystery that the Crucified Jesus is the Risen Saviour, the cornerstone of our faith.

Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes.

We bless you from the house of the Lord;

You are my God, I thank you.

My God, I praise you.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good;
for his love has no end.

We receive the Lord in Word and Sacrament in Eucharist. Let us take his goodness into our world.
Simply thank God for being your/our great God and that we know his love is everlasting.
