

Sunday 11 August 2024 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For three Sundays we will pray the same response to Psalm 33, "Taste and see the Lord is good" as we continue to journey with the Eucharistic Discourse of John chapter 6

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 33(34):2-9

TASTE AND SEE THAT THE LORD IS GOOD.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.

*In every Eucharist let us thank God that he enables us to bless and praise him for his goodness to us
Let us be grateful for the privilege that as mere humans we have such a relationship with the Lord God*

Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free.

*Thank God that at the Eucharist we can praise and glorify God with our sisters and brothers
Let us renew our confidence that at the Eucharist the Lord hears us and frees us from terror and evil*

Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This poor man called, the Lord heard him
and rescued him from all his distress.

*Let us reflect how in the Eucharist we can bask in the radiance light of God's glorious presence
Let us pray that we will welcome all to our Eucharist, rich and poor alike, troubled and joyful.*

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in him.

*Rejoice that at the Eucharist we pray in the company of the angels and saints
Reflect on God's amazing gift of Eucharist, where we taste the goodness of the Lord*
