Early intervention in safeguarding (often referred to as early help) is the process of providing timely, targeted support to children, young people and families when problems first arise, before they escalate into severe crises or significant harm.

The Diocese of Hallam safeguarding team collaborates with several support organisations, which include internal Diocesan Projects whom you will hear from on the day. By working together, we provide help to those experiencing harm or abuse, homelessness, loneliness or social isolation.

Presentations/Speakers include:

- Caritas (formerly Hallam Caring Services)
- St. Wilfrid's Centre
- Carmel Care Centre
- St. Vincent's Mission Hub
- Hallam Youth Ministry
- Welfare Support for Retired Clergy
